Membership Cancellations

While we will be sad to see any member leave us, we understand that certain circumstances occur and you may need to end your membership (hopefully short term) with us, we ask that members terminate their memberships at reception by signing a termination form.

RCP Memberships: We require at least one months' notice which needs to be in person by signing a cancellation form or via email.

Existing Direct Debit Memberships: A one month notice cancellation policy apply to all memberships on Direct Debit. It needs to be in person by signing a cancellation form or via email.

Monthly and Annual Memberships: You are free to cancel your membership at any point with us, but as it is a fixed term payment we will not be offering a refund/credit back. This can be done in person or via email.
