Lane Etiquette

Judge your own ability and lane pace to select the lane to use.

- If you cannot keep pace with other swimmers, change lane.
 - Swim single file to allow overtaking when necessary.
 - Allow a reasonable and safe distance between fellow swimmers and yourself.
 - Respect others personal space.
 - Allow others to overtake at the end of the lane if necessary.
 - If you need to pass a swimmer in front of you, give their toes a polite tap.
 - Avoid talking or stopping in inappropriate places.
 - Be polite to swimmers of varying skill levels.
 - Show respect for others when dealing with a problem; if necessary make the lifeguard aware
 - Please avoid using back stroke in narrow lanes.
 - Respect the lifeguard's decision if he/she feels you are in the wrong lane for your speed.
- Above all use common sense and courtesy.
