Lane Etiquette

Judge your own ability and lane pace to select the lane to use.

- If you cannot keep pace with other swimmers, change lane.
- Swim single file to allow overtaking when necessary.
- Allow a reasonable and safe distance between fellow swimmers and yourself.
- Respect others personal space.
- Allow others to overtake at the end of the lane if necessary.
- If you need to pass a swimmer in front of you, give their toes a polite tap.
- Avoid talking or stopping in inappropriate places.
- Be polite to swimmers of varying skill levels.
- Show respect for others when dealing with a problem; if necessary make the lifeguard aware
- Please avoid using back stroke in narrow lanes.
- Respect the lifeguard's decision if he/she feels you are in the wrong lane for your speed.

Above all use common sense and courtesy.

NB PSLC will not be responsible for any articles lost, damaged or stolen on premises.
